Key Passage: James 2:14-26 (MSG)

1. True faith in God results in doing the works of God; God wants us to do good works.
2. We must look to Jesus as our example of one who performed good works.
3. Following in the footsteps of Jesus and seeing his fruitful example of good works is a great starting point in our journey of doing good works.
4. We must know that Jesus' finished Work has made it possible for us to enter into his saving work.
5. God through his enabling grace has not only provided a means through which we can accomplish good works, but also desires that we abound with success in every good work.
6. We must know that good works are Spirit led and flow from a heart of love for God and for others.
7. Loving God and loving people will motivate you to do good works for God.
