

Sermon On The Mount - Part 6
“Love Your Enemy”

Key Passage: Matthew 5:43-48 (NIV)

Exo 21:23-25 But if there is serious injury, you are to take life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, burn for burn, wound for wound, bruise for bruise.

It is the attitude of heart to turn the other cheek, giving the cloak, or going the extra distance.

In order to obtain this new heart attitude, we must learn to discipline our hearts, transform our hearts and mind, by understanding the greater value of being like-minded with Jesus!

What Jesus is guiding us to have is a totally different attitude of the heart. A life of freedom from evil, anger, and sin.

There are several areas why living this truth is so vital:

- 1). Highlighting the injustice in the world.
- 2). To be different from the world!
- 3). For others to see and be changed by our witness.
- 4). Because Jesus gets the last word.

What can you do right now to retrain your heart and mind to react differently?

What insecurities or wounds cause you to respond to offense in ways other than those of Jesus?

What's keeping you from fully loving others?
